

Title: Monument to Lady Mary Wriothesley (d.1615) Parish Church of St. Peter, Titchfield, Hampshire

Document: © Society of Antiquaries of London, Collection of Prints and Drawings, Sepulchral Monument and Tombs, Hampshire, SAL/238A/7r-v

Creator: R.H.C. Ubsdell, September, 1840.

Description: Watercolour drawing of the Monument to Lady Mary Wriothesley (d.1615), daughter of the 3rd Earl of Southampton, drawn by R.H.C. Ubsdell, Sept. 1840

Ownership/©: © Society of Antiquaries of London

Transcription: Dorna Bewley, Southampton Online Research Repository (SORR)

[fol. 7v] [in Ubsdell's holograph]

1. Monument to Ladie Marie Wryotheslye.
2. Titchfield Church
3. Sept. 1840. Drawn by R.H.C. Ubsdell
4. The figures are much defaced, and only one
5. hand remains, which appears to have held a palm
6. branch. The figure above the monument probably
7. held a trumpet. The figures of the Angels measure
8. 25 inches in height?
9. The artist has added five more letters in the first line (ESLYE)
10. than there ought to be, as they are carried on to the second
11. line in the original.